C. G. KEELER,
W. W. CLARKE,
J. W. JONES,
Committee.

The first colored man ever nominated for a State office in the North, is J. E. McCabe, whom the Republicans of Kansas have put in nomination for State Auditor. He is 32 years old, and is worthy and well qualified.

The Malley jurors have been pretty well fed and otherwise entertained since they saved the necks of the boys from the gallows. They have had another reunion at the home of the Malleys, and were flattered, wine and dined in a royal manner.

A foot-in-the-grave sheet at Racine is still trying to get some one to pay attention to what it says on the congressional question. It resorts to French in its last issue, and huris this at the people:—"Grosses tele et peu de sens." The convention will be held, notwithstanding, on next Wednesday.

After 1,521 ballots in the Twelfth Illinois district, General Singleton, of Quincy, was defeated for renomination, and one J. M. Riggs nominated in his place. It took five days to cast the 1,521 ballots, and was the longest contest ever known in this country, for a nomination for Congress. Mr. Riggs is a Democrat, and will be elected, as the district is strongly Democratic.

This is the way the Beloit people boast of the righteousness of the Beloit people: "The citizens of Beloit being so busily and lucratively engaged in legitimate business, accounts for the notable absence of Beloit names in the list of applicants for positions on the county ticket published Saturday. It will be observed that Janesville comes to the front in that catalogue with all that old time unanimity which has so often astonished the world."

Commenting upon Mr. Houck, the Republican Sentinel says: "It is said that Congressman Houck, of Tennessee, is likely to be defeated for renomination because he was intoxicated at Marysville where he had an appointment to speak. The world is moving—when a Democrat in Tennessee can make himself unpopular by a free use of moonshine manufacture it begins to look as though nothing in this world is stable."

One of the most remarkable cases of adventure by a boy is that of Joseph Wilson Becker, who is 12 years old. He traveled all the way from British Guiana, South America, to visit an uncle in Wilkesbarre, Penn., who is a well-to-do business man. When he arrived here he was homeless and shoeless. He tells a remarkable story. He shipped with Captain Nash on the brigantine Haven, and made his way from New York to this city on coal-trains. He is a very intelligent lad for his age and possessed of a remarkable memory.

The Chicago and Northwestern railway has put on a new postal line between Janesville, Madison, Baraboo, and Winona, has just been improved by the adjustment of a new set of through lock-register pouches. Heretofore all the registered packages originating in the offices west of those places and destined eastward, have been sent to La Crosse, where they were detained from twelve to twenty-four hours. This has been changed by the new improvements, and the service between Winona and the above-mentioned Wisconsin points is now direct.

The Chicago Herald takes the liberty of informing its readers that Governor Pound's vote for the River and Harbor bill defeated him for renomination and that Mr. William T. Price carried off the prize. The Herald is badly rattled on Wisconsin congressional districts, Mr. Pound and Mr. Price live in different districts—the former in the Ninth and the latter in the Eight. The convention which will nominate a candidate in place of Mr. Pound has not been held, and there is a prospect that he will be renominated, although he wrote a letter of declination several weeks ago. But letters of declination do not often mean what they say, and this appears to be the case with Mr. Pound.

The sale of the Democratic votes of Ohio has been made, the brewers of that State being the purchasers. The price paid was $30,000, which the leaders of party received in their own hands. There are about $10,000 Democratic votes in Ohio, and here is a comment made on the transaction:

The brewers have agreed to purchase an entire lot at 3 and 8-10 of a cent per head. Any schoolboy can explain it. If $10,000 Democrats are worth only $30,000, then one Democrat is worth in the market 3 1/2 cents, or less than the retail price of two glasses of beer. In some cases, perhaps, even this price is too high, but in thousands of others it is "dog cheap." Just think of it, the whole Democratic party of Ohio has been sold to the brewing interest for a sum equal to the retail price of 600,000 glasses of beer.

We notice that the price paid for Democratic votes in Ohio, is about the ruling price in Wisconsin, except that where they take beer in Ohio, they take old rye, or something of that temperance kind, in this State.

Dispatches were sent over the wires a few days ago that the will of the late Governor Washburn would be contested, and an application for a guardian made for Mrs. Washburn that she might receive her dower right under the law of Minnesota. The St. Paul Pioneer Press says that Mr. C. J. Martin, of Minneapolis, one of the executors of the will, has been interviewed regarding the matter and he says there will be no contest made. His explanation of the first dispatch was that "the will was obscure upon one point, and the executors had deemed it necessary to have this point interpreted by the courts, but any suit which was brought would be an anticlimax one designed to carry out his purpose of the will. The appointment of a guardian does not have the significance the dispatch implies, but was a legal necessity. Mr. Hahn, counsel in the matter, explained to a reporter that the dower right of Mrs. Washburn in the real estate which includes all the mills and water power at this point, is as absolute under the laws of Minnesota as though it had been deeded to her. She is therefore a third owner of them, the other two thirds interest remaining in the hands of the executors, as provided by this will. Mrs. Washburn is not in mental condition to act for herself, and it was, therefore, absolutely necessary that a guardian be appointed to act for her with the executors."

Governor St. John, of Kansas, has been renominated, the vote standing on the first ballot 287 for St. John, and 82 for J. B. Johnson, and a few scattering. The action of Governor St. John is one of the many surprises we have in four politics. He is a strong temperance man, and was fought desperately by the brewing interest of the State and also by the National Association, which contributed large sums of money for the campaign. Many of the leading newspapers were also against him, and at one time it seemed as if his defeat was a foregone conclusion. But the agricultural element in Kansas, an element which elsewhere as well as in Kansas, seldom is wrong in sentiment, was united for St. John, and that influence brought about his renomination by an overwhelming vote. He has made a good Governor, and therefore the opposition could bring no charges against him except that he was a Prohibitionist. The Kansas Republicans made a clean sweep on almost all the leading vital questions of the day. They reaffirmed their faith in prohibition, adopted a resolution denouncing discrimination in railway rates; and favored the submission of the woman's suffrage question to the people. It also did another thing, adopting the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Republicans of Kansas heartily endorse President Arthur's veto of the River and Harbor bill and the action of the United States delegation in sustaining that veto.

KANSAS REPUBLICANS.

TOPEKA, Aug. 10.—The Republican State convention reconvened at 9:45 this morning. D. J. Browner was nominated for associate justice by acclamation.

John P. St. John and Solon O. Thatcher were placed in nomination. The roll-call shows that John P. St. John received 287 votes, Thatcher 82, J. B. Johnson 12, John A. Martin 2.

The protest of the anti-St. John men against the nomination of St. John telegraphed yesterday was then presented and filed with the proceedings of the convention. Governor St. John was then called for, and made a brief speech. No effort was made to make St. John's nomination unanimous.

The remainder of the State ticket was then nominated as follows: D. W. Enay, present incumbent, for Lieutenant Governor; James Smith, present incumbent, for Secretary of State.

McCabe, a colored man of Graham county, for Auditor. Treasurer—Samuel S. Howe. Attorney General—W. A. Johnson. State Superintendent—T. C. Spear. After appointing a State Central Committee the convention adjourned sine die.

NEVER IN A DEAL.

MILWAUKEE, August 10.—Alexander Mitchell, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway, stated in an interview to-day concerning his connection with the wheat and pork corners in St. Louis and Chicago: "There is not one word of truth in these so-called inside histories which connect my name with any grain or pork transaction whatever. I am a banker, and as such I have never thought of taking part in buying or selling on our boards of trade. My bank lends to its customers on good collateral, but it is not the business of the bank to dictate how they shall use the money so borrowed, and neither I individually, nor the bank have ever had any interest in the profits or losses of any of the great transactions which have recently received so much public attention. I have never given any notice to the newspaper stories published about me, and have not considered them worth denying, for those who know me, and whose opinions I value, know very well that my methods of business agree with my business principles, which have ever been of the most conservative kind. During the forty-three years I have been in business in the West, I have never been interested in a deal of any kind."

MURDERED BY BURGLARS.

CAIRO, Ill., Aug. 10.—At Columbus, Ky., last night, Mr. Albert Lower, a traveling salesman for Messrs. Glover & Nichols, of Detroit Mich., and half brother to J. D. Roberts, druggist of Columbus, while attending to Mr. Roberts' business during the latter's absence, was murdered by burglars while trying to prevent their escape from the store, which they had entered by a rear window. Lower was found dead by the housekeeper this morning. No clue has been obtained to the murderers. Considerable excitement prevails at Columbus, and a vigilance society will be commenced at once. The murderers secured two or three pistols, and also robbed the cash drawer. Lower leaves a wife and two small children.

THE TROUBLED CIRCUS.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 10.—The financial embarrassment that overtook Myers & Shorb's circus and menagerie yesterday is still unrelieved, and the great combination remains in the hands of the marshal of the judiciary court. To-day matters were further complicated by the filing of an attachment on the advertising car by Billy Andrews, the clown and press agent of the show. Nearly all the employees of the concern have filed attachments in the magistrates' courts, and the dealers who furnished supplies are also striving to get their money, and the newspapers are represented in the official documents. These papers, amounting to something over 100 in number, have been served on the marshal, and it was whispered around that the court officials were not resting the easiest in the world. There is a fear that the marshal will have to provide for the animals and horses until he can sell them, which is a large undertaking. Andrews' claim is for $300, and he was soon followed by Elex Jacques, another member of the combination, who attached for $471. At 2 o'clock Deputy Marshal Moutz had the performing tent taken down and began making preparations for the night. He sent in for funds to purchase supplies. It is said by those who are best informed that the real owners of the circus reside in Chicago, and that they have been kept informed of the condition of their affair. On account of rainy weather during the summer the managers have lost money, and it is intended to make Louisville a point of settlement. The shortage amounted to something over $10,000, and this sum was to have been on deposited here when the circus arrived, but from some cause the money did not arrive.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 10.—The Courier-Journal says: At a late hour last night the management submitted to Col. Jeffery a proposition of settlement which will probably be accepted this morning, by which the property attached will be released and the circus allowed to go on and make its dates elsewhere throughout the State, so that the suits of yesterday will not in the slightest interfere with the completion of the present season. The concern is backed by Col. Barr Hobbins, the veteran showman, whose name has been connected with the arena for two or three decades and whose financial backing is of a character that will insure success. The unfortunate predicament in which the management found itself yesterday was, as will be seen from above statement, due to a complication of causes rather than any desire to shirk its obligations, and even the gentleman who is urging the suits has full confidence in the ultimate solvency of the concern. Col. Hobbins is behind it. The United States will make next date at Lebanon, for which point it will probably leave to-day noon.

THE COLORED NOMINEE.

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 10.—E. McCabe, the nominee of to-day's convention for Auditor, is said to be the first colored man to be nominated to a State office in the Northern States. He was born in New York in 1850, lived in Rhode Island, and married in Illinois. He was in the Treasurer's office of Cook County, Ill., for a time, and in 1877 moved to Kansas, where he has been and now is a county clerk.

WISCONSIN PHARMACISTS.

OSHKOSH, Wis., Aug. 10.—The State Pharmaceutical Association closed its annual session to-day. The following officers were elected: President, George Bannan, Oshkosh; Vice President, R. D. Palford, Mineral Point; T. J. Hooper, Platteville; Secretary, E. B. Heimstreet, Janesville; Local Secretary, T. H. Spence, La Crosse; Treasurer, W. P. Clark, Milton; Executive Committee, F. P. Prentice, Janesville; W. H. Hammersley, Geneva Lake; E. B. Allen, Richland Center; T. H. Spence, La Crosse; John Dodd, Milwaukee. Various standing committees were also appointed. T. C. Griswold, of Evansville; F. S. Fonton, Beloit; A. Conrath, Milwaukee; H. O. Schrank, Milwaukee, and George Bannan, Oshkosh, were elected delegates to the American Pharmaceutical Association. The usual resolutions closed the session and the association took a steamboat excursion on the lake.

MISSING BOYS.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Aug. 10.—Two boys named Knepper, aged 11 and 13, living with a man named Teegarden at Lithopolis, 10 miles south of here, have disappeared. They started to pick blackberries near their brook, and stockings have been found in the woods. There is no water within two miles, and their disappearance is a mystery.

HISCOCK ON THE APPROPRIATIONS.

On the 5th of August, Hon. Frank Hiscock, of New York, delivered a speech in the House of Representatives on appropriations. He explained why the appropriations were so much larger this year than last. He said:

MR. CHAIRMAN: The bill which we are now considering carries, in the aggregate, $25,589,358. It is the last of the appropriation bills. The aggregate of all the appropriations which have been made by this Congress for the last year, ending on the 30th of September, 1882, including the bill now under consideration, amounts to $285,923,065.09. The aggregate of the appropriations for the fiscal year is about $219,367,993.38. It will be seen by this statement, Mr. Chairman, that this Congress has increased the appropriations over the amount appropriated for the last fiscal year in the aggregate $66,555,071.71. In this excess of appropriations for the current year of $46,555,071.71 is included $7,302,585 of excess in the river and harbor bill over the appropriations for the last fiscal year. It is not my purpose, sir, to enter into an examination of the merits of that bill. I shall briefly point out the items of increase, and the bill does not suffer by comparison with the one our Democratic predecessors gave the country. Three million one hundred and twenty-three thousand dollars is for the improvement of the Lower Mississippi, a great national work to which the legislation of preceding Congresses has committed the country, and as to which I do not understand there is any division in the judgment of the country. The improvement of that great water-way is in the right of the great States to which it affords a proper outlet for their railroad monopoly. Seven hundred and forty thousand dollars of the excess is in the increase of appropriation for the same river and its tributaries, notably the Missouri, aggregating about $3,000,000. Baltimore receives $300,000 of the excess; Charleston harbor, $125,000; Savannah harbor, $185,000; Galveston harbor, $50,000; Oakland harbor, California, $140,000; Buffalo harbor, $25,000; Lynn harbor, Massachusetts, $30,000; and $400,000 of the excess is for the improvement of the Potomac river. The items of increase I have indicated aggregate about $5,000,000 and I could find many others equally meritorious, though not so large, to account for the remaining $2,000,000 of the excess in appropriations of the bill of the committee on commerce of the present House as approved and concurred by this Congress over the last year's bill. I did not join in that approval and concurrence. I believe the law appropriating too much money, granting every object it provides for worthy of aid, and in my opinion it provides for improvements that have no claims upon the treasury of the general government; but the law for the present year is far less objectionable in this respect than the last year's law.

—Mrs. J. A. North, of Fox Lake, Wis., is in the city.

—The politician is once more every man's best friend.

—Miss Mae Dittoek returned to-day from a visit to Madison.

—Republicans should not fail to attend the ward caucuses to-night.

—Ex-Mayor A. P. Lorejoy, has returned from a Northern and Eastern tour.

—Mr. L. J. Kinney, of Rock Island, is in the city, visiting his family and his old friends.

—There is no hope of getting one of the through Dakota trains to run through Janesville.

—Mr. B. Powers, a commission merchant of Chicago, is visiting friends in Janesville.

—A new walk is being built in the park, from the corner of Lappin's residence to that of McKimney's.

—Miss Lou James, (Miss Ida Nicholas and Mr. A. Taggart, all of Rockford, are in the city to-day, guests at the Myers house.

—Miss Hattie Dearborn, has kindly consented to delight the audience at the Broom Brigade entertainment Saturday night, with a vocal group.

—The only way to insure satisfaction at the result of the convention, is to attend the ward caucuses to-night and select your own delegates.

—The league ball games yesterday, resulted as follows: Providence 10, Chicago 8; Cleveland 3, Boston 0; Troy 5, Detroit 4; Buffalo 13, Worcester 7.

—Mr. E. B. Heinemann has been re-elected secretary of the Wisconsin State Pharmaceutical Association which adjourned in Oshkosh at noon yesterday.

—Mr. Burr Robbins writes to his wife that he has again become afflicted with erysipelas, a result of his injury received here, in his boat colliding with the bridge.

—The Rev. C. M. Pullen is about to take a much needed vacation, and in consequence there will be no services in Christ church until the first Sunday in September.

—Mr. Thomas Sherwood, of Independence, Iowa, is in the city, and will probably engage in business here. He was formerly a partner of Mr. A. B. Edwards of the Pease house, when the two lived in Pennsylvania.

—Mr. Fred Prentice has returned from Oshkosh, where he was in attendance at the Druggists' Convention, and expresses himself as highly pleased with his trip. The other delegates from Janesville will return by to-morrow.

—The water suit, the trial of which was to be resumed next Monday before Hon. A. Scott Sloan, will be postponed for a few weeks, it being impossible for all the attorneys to be present next week. The case will probably not be reached before the latter part of September.

—One of the most attractive features of the programme of the Broom Brigade entertainment, will be one of Gottschalk's instrumental masterpieces, rendered by Mrs. J. D. King. Mrs. King is a most pleasing pianist, and the fact that she will entertain for a while will be a great inducement to attendance.

—Large crowds witnessed the working yesterday and to-day of the self-guiding thrasher, which quite astonished the spectators by the exactness of its movements. One of these machines has been purchased by ex-Sheriff R. T. Pease, who was trying it to-day. They are manufactured by Nicholas & Shepard, of Battle Creek, Mich., and are a wonderful improvement on horses.

—The Mutuals have returned from Rockford, and as was expected, were victorious in their contest with the Blue Stockings of that place. Our boys played splendidly, and won a fine game by a score of 2 to 5. At the beginning of the sixth inning the score stood 5 to 1, in favor of the Rockfords. The attendance was large, but not very considerable, as the crowd in a very ungentlemanly way hooted any mistake or poor play of the Mutuals.

—An invoice of select persons exhibited, from the city yesterday to interview and dissect the Dolls. The party consisted of Wm. Payne, Mrs. M. P. Leavitt, Miss Boys, of Janesville, and Mrs. Emmerts, Miss M. S. Cochran and Miss M. E. Cochran, of Freeport—tapering from the elderly and substantial business men of Wisconsin down to the petite and attractive young lady of Illinois. The weather being delirious, the trip will doubtless be delightful and the visitors cannot fail to receive impressions from the Dolls which will be indelible. May, the effects not prove delirious.

—The party who last week camped out at Delavan Lake, had a very pleasant reunion yesterday evening at the residence of Mr. Edward Davies. All the members were present, and in spirit lived over again the hardships and enjoyments of many of the late camp Curtis, as it was unanimously named after the little girl from the Golden Gate. After a recently indulging in the luxuries of camp life it seemed rather hard for the party to content themselves with ice-cream, pineapple cake and kindred alleged delicacies but nevertheless, they "made 'em look real." A magnificent banquet with the inscription, "for shaffy," was presented to Mrs. Davies, by R. M. Bostwick in recognition of her services in chaperoning the party at the Lake. The reunion closed at a reasonably late hour last night, with the avowed determination of all that they would renew their camping experience next summer.

—In an article published in the Gazette referring to an unfortunate circumstance connected with Dr. Tracy, the temperance advocate who delivered a series of lectures here, a wrong impression was conveyed by a portion of the language. While one of the singers in the troupe became intoxicated, the thought should not be entertained for a moment that the other ladies and gentlemen connected with Dr. Tracy were anything but what they seemed, true disciples of the temperance cause and persons of the highest characters. The affair of Mr. Cannon nailing the door to the hall was simply, as is alleged, a precaution against pilferers, and not because of any doubts about Dr. Tracy's willingness and ability to pay his bills. This explanation is made, in order to do justice to some estimable ladies and gentlemen and correct a false impression, which a publication of the bass singer's fall from grace occasioned.

Rev. MacLean Resigns.

The Rev. T. W. MacLean has resigned his position of rector at Trinity Church. A meeting of the vestry was called last night to consider the resignation, and though his to part with the gentleman, who has so endeared himself to his congregation, and the public generally, it was determined to accept it. Mr. MacLean has been here for four years, during which time he has achieved a popularity but seldom enjoyed by so young a man. The resignation is to take effect the last Sunday in September, when he will assume charge of a wealthy and flourishing parish in Ypsilanti, Mich.

Fall of the Stars.

A large number of people neglected to dent their pillows last night, in order to witness the promised pyrotechnical exhibition, which was advertised to take place, sometime about 2 o'clock a. m. The oldest inhabitants recounted with gusto, the published descriptions of the famous fall of the stars in '33, and carefully wiped their spectacles in anticipation of the repetition.

At about midnight a bright meteor flashed through starry space, a harbinger of the approaching display but its ephemeral light faded, and no others followed. The condition of the atmosphere was unpropitious, and as some of the performers kicked for a raise of wages, the management concluded to indefinitely postpone the performance. It was quite a disappointment to the audience, who had to content themselves with twatching the flickering of the candles.

The Weather.

The thermometer at 7 a. m. to-day registered 54 degrees above zero, and at 1 p. m. 75 degrees above. For the corresponding periods last year, it was 72 and 87 degrees above.

The signal service indications for to-day were:

Tennessee and Ohio Valley and Lake Region—Slightly warmer fair weather, winds mostly from west to south, followed by stationary or falling barometer.

In Memoriam.

Died, Feb. 22, 1892, at her residence near Footville, Wis., of consumption of the lungs, Mrs. Nettie B. Cory Campbell, wife of William Campbell, and daughter of Albert and Adeline Beach. She was born in Litchfield county, Conn., removed to Wisconsin in early childhood, resided with her sisters and brother, Julius Beach, until his decease, then at the home of Hon. E. A. Foot, her uncle. She was married to Harvey P. Cory, after which they resided in Kansas until Mr. Cory's decease, when she returned to Wisconsin and was recently married to Mr. Wm. Campbell, of Center. That insidious disease consumption, had marked her, as it had done other members of the family, for its prey, and she finally yielded to its demands.

Nettie Beach Cory Campbell was a true, kind, gentle woman, of a singularly calm and sweet spirit. None knew her but to esteem her for her genuine, unaffected sincerity and kindness of heart. Her life was largely the inner life of the sympathies and the affections. Those who knew her best knew her but to love a nature precious as benedictions, and delightful as summer zephyrs from the sunny south, wafting balmy fragrance from seas of flowers. It is sad that such a she, in the midst of life, should be called from husband, children, friends and home. We trust that the shadows of the sunset of her mortal life falling here are only to be followed by the radiant splendors of a morning of eternal youth.

THE BROOM BRIGADE.

How the Ladies Manipulate the Main Stay of Domesticity.

In response to an invitation, the Gazette commissioner paid a visit yesterday afternoon to the Guards' armory, to witness the Broom Brigade drill. If anything will enthuse a man and awaken his latent desires for military display, it is to witness a corps of pretty ladies going through the evolutions of drill. There were twenty-one in line yesterday afternoon, and in marching around the hall, performing all the movements with the nicety of trained men, they presented a fine appearance.

"Shoulder—Brooms!" up went twenty-one heart destroyers, parading about with a precision, characteristic of old veterans. Their eyes looked formidable batteries supplied with inexhaustible ammunition, and every moment the interested spectators would imagine when the company was marching down upon him, that the drill master, just for fun, would give the order to "charge brooms." Greatly troubled by a thought akin to this, the Gazette commissioner, seated himself near the door where convenient and rapid exit could be accomplished, should any such demonstration be made. Luckily no order of the kind was given and we feel duly grateful to Mr. J. B. Doe and Dr. Newman the drillmasters for their considerate forbearance. After the first flutter of excitement had subsided, the reporter was put more at ease by being informed that the brooms were not loaded, yet they might well be used with great effect as clubs. What a poor show a husband would have with a wife, who had studied the manual of arms or rather brooms and reduced it to an exact science. Every one of these twenty-one pretty girls, who ordinarily look as sweet and innocent as doves, as they should, when drilling were infused with a military ardor, their eyes sparkled with more than accustomed brilliancy, their pink-tipped ears were deaf to any suggestions of strawberries and cream, and twenty-one pairs of kissable lips were closed with heroic curves, indicative of anything but smiles, which usually grace them. The brooms were carried with the sweeping attachment up, the majority of them being bound with ribbons of gay colors.

For a little more than an hour the drilling was kept up, all the movements evidencing good training, and proved with what aptitude, femininity can imitate such arduous masculine maneuvers.

The entertainment to be given by the brigade to-morrow night, will be well worth attending, and it is safe to predict that the armory will be filled to its utmost capacity. In addition to the novel attraction of drilling, the ladies will sing a military song during the march.
